

Ordnance 'Brass' Meet at Arsenal

Commanding officers of the various ammunition plants throughout the United States met at Joliet Arsenal today in a meeting called by the officials of the Ordnance Ammunition center.

The meeting is a routine one, it was reported, to get views of the various officers on operations of the plants.